“What matters in the UN Global Compact is that you are committed to values, and those values are exactly what makes your companies not only profitable, effective companies to the economy, but companies that contribute to prevention and sustaining peace which are now central to our concerns at the United Nations”

António Guterres
UN Secretary-General addresses the 10th UN Private Sector Forum
Dear IGCN Members, Partners and Stakeholders,

We had an exciting year in 2018.

With the UN Sustainable Development Goals as the world’s collective blueprint for humanity, IGCN is also committed to proactively support the implementation in Indonesia. Some of the initiatives and actions: engaged in the development of National Action Plan (NAP) especially on the metadata indicators for SDGs; conducted socialization and training on various topics related SDGs; introduced management tools provided by UN Global Compact and partners such as: SDG Industry Matrix, Women’s Empowerment Principles, Gender Gap Analysis Tool, Grievance Mechanism Tool, Human Rights Compliance Assessment Tool, etc. Also supported the Indonesian Philanthropy Festival (FIFEST 2018).

Our UN Global Compact Ten Principles has never been more important as today in helping private sector to drive responsible business actions while taking SDGs as opportunities. It is reflected in our 3-year (2016-2018) thematic initiatives: Business for Peace; Women Empowerment for Better Job Opportunities; Clean Water & Sanitation; Better Living Environment; and Business Ethics and Governance.

We delightfully welcome the visit of Ms. Lise Kingo, CEO and Executive Director of UN Global Compact, to Indonesia. She and delivered keynote address at the FIFEST 2018 Plenary. She also made courtesy calls on the Vice President of the Republic of Indonesia H.E. Mr. M. Jusuf Kalla, the Minister of National Planning Board/Head of BAPPENAS Prof. Bambang Brojonegoro and the Head of Fiscal Policy Agency of the Ministry of Finance Prof. Suahasil Nazara, S.E., M.Sc.

Taking the advantage of her presence, we conducted “IGCN Executive Breakfast” and witnessed new members pledge signing a commitment to implement the UN Global Compact 10 Principles. A special dinner was also organized in honor of her, attended by the government executives, UN Resident Coordinator, UN Agencies, Ambassadors, and IGCN key members.

We highly appreciate our IGCN Boards, Members, Partners and Stakeholders, for their continued contributions, support and involvement in every activity in 2018. Let’s intensify energy and build momentum together in 2019 to mainstream UN Global Compact Principles and contribute to the SDGs implementation for a better Indonesia.

Y.W. Junardy
President of IGCN
Dear IGCN Members, Partners and Stakeholders,

The year of 2018 was full of excitements as IGCN was progressing to the next level of existence.

We continue to strengthen our partnership and are bringing more opportunities for our members to collaborate and to invest more in people through empowerment and capacity building as well as tackle more local issues that matters.

We continuously run the program series on Business and Human Rights. This year, we conducted Regional session, 4 times Multi-stakeholders Dialogues with various topics, Training for Business Leaders and Government Officials, and also contributed in various discussions and workshops organized by Coordinating Ministry of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Ministry of Law and Human Rights and our partners such as INFID, OXFAM, UNDP, ELSAM.

We continue to support our members in Learning – we encourage members to explore the UN Global Compact Academy and participate in Academy sessions. We are also bringing global partnership into local engagement: We are engaging with Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) to disseminate Reporting tools developed by both GRI and UN Global Compact; with UN Women and Indonesia Business Coalition of Women Empowerment (IBCWE) for the implementation of Women Empowerment Principles’ (WEP); with UNICEF and Yayasan Sayangi Tunas Cilik (Save The Children) for the implementation of Children’s Right and Business Principles’ (CRBP).

We also successfully conducted the third business matchmaking session with the support of “Womenpreneurs” involving 19 women owned-led business to have access to the market place, and access to financing.

We consistently promote the sustainable environment, especially on water issues. In collaboration with UNESCO to initiate a new project: to Raise Awareness of Water Security and Water Quality in Pari Islands (Project Pari II). Driven by the spirit of “Making Global Goals Local Business”, we collaborated with PT. Trans Javagas Pipeline and Royal Ubud Family to implement a biogas system to optimize the waste utilization in Ubud, Bali.

IGCN led a business delegation of ten people from five companies to attend the UN Global Compact Leaders Summit in New York. IGCN also brought to the Summit, partnership “Empowering Women Smallholders in Managing Environment for Forest Protection” between Asia Pulp & Paper (APP Group) and Martha Tilaar Group to empower 1000 women in forestry area supporting the implementation of SDG 5 “Gender Equality” and SDG 8 “Decent Work and Economic Growth”.

Another highlight of the Leader Summit was the appointment of Ibu Dr. (H.C.) Martha Tilaar, Founder and Chairman of Martha Tilaar Group as an SDG Pioneer 2018 for Advancing Sustainability through Community Engagement. IGCN also contributed for the first time to the UN Forum on Business and Human Rights in Geneva in November 2018 by having three speakers spoke at three different sessions.

We also sent six youth leaders to attend Youth Forum 2018 organized by Global Compact Network Singapore. The Youth Forum is a for youths, by youths forum that has the objectives of engaging youths to champion Corporate Sustainability through dialogues, workshops, panel discussions and site visits.

We would like to thank you for your commitment and continued support to IGCN.

Josephine Satyono
Executive Director of IGCN
For my part, as leader of the UN Global Compact, I am pleased to see our 70 Local Networks creating awareness and catalyzing action on the ground. They provide our participants with the connections and expertise required to drive sustainability at the national and local level and are truly “Making Global Goals Local Business.” More than 80% of our participants say they are actively engaged in achieving the SDGs and, in more than two-thirds of our companies, the CEO is driving the Global Goals as part of a responsible business innovation agenda.

My colleagues and I are striving to equip all our participants with the necessary tools and resources to pursue corporate responsibility in their own way. A few examples include our new learning platform, the UN Global Compact Academy, our new SDG Reporting framework to help companies account for their progress towards the Goals and Ten Principles, and our Action Platforms that have been designed to enable businesses to innovate towards the Goals through our unique principles-based approach.

This year, we will be launching three new global engagement initiatives to help stakeholders to drive tipping points and real world impact by: Driving the SDGs through Youth and Innovation, Closing the Climate Change Gap and Closing the Gender Empowerment Gap. Through your leadership, I encourage you to continue your efforts to demonstrate that business is a true force for good. Whatever the world throws our way, let’s navigate towards the SDGs — always guided by our Ten Principles.

As Kofi Annan stated 20 years ago, and UN Secretary-General António Guterres continues to advocate today, Governments cannot do it alone. The transformational change to create a better world relies on business know-how and resources. In other words, leaders like you.

Thank you for being part of the UN Global Compact. We look forward to working with you in the coming year, the Year of Tipping Points.

ACTIVITY HIGHLIGHTS
A. PROMOTING SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

1. The Launch of SDGs National Action Plan (NAP) for Indonesia (5 June 2018, Jakarta)

The commitment of the Indonesian Government to the implementation of SDGs was marked by the launch of the SDGs National Action Plan (NAP) by the Vice President of the Republic of Indonesia on 5 June 2018. The NAP development is coordinated by the National Planning Board based on Presidential Degree 59/2017 by involving the Government and Parliament, Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), media, academia as well as philanthropy and business. IGCN was appointed as member of Working Group on Law and Governance Development Pillar which coordinates Goal 16 on Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions with Indonesia adapting 12 targets and 23 indicators.

Prior to the launch, IGCN as member of FBI4SDGs, actively attended and provided feedback in the development of SDGs indicators for Indonesia.
2. FBI4SDGs Launch (27 July 2018, Jakarta)

As a manifestation of the Government’s commitment in the SDGs, President Jokowi has signed Presidential Regulation (Perpres) No 59 of 2017 concerning the implementation of the SDGs achievements.

The Presidential Regulation regulates the procedures for implementing and achieving the SDGs by involving stakeholders from various groups. This regulation stipulates the establishment of a “National Coordination Team for SDGs” which consists of four stakeholder groups, namely the Government, academics, CSOs and the media, as well as philanthropy and business.

To facilitate coordination of the implementation of the SDGs, the philanthropy and business group formed a platform called “Indonesian Philanthropy and Business for SDGs” (FBI4SDGs) which was launched on 27 July 2018 and witnessed by the Minister of National Development Planning. This platform ensures the synergy of partnership in philanthropy and business circles, as well as other sectors including the Government. Its establishment was initiated by the Indonesian Philanthropy Association (PFI), the Indonesian Business Council for Sustainable Development (IBCSD), Indonesia Global Compact Network (IGCN), and the Indonesian Chamber of Commerce (KADIN). FBI4SDGs membership has now grown to 15 associations representing around 500 companies and philanthropy.
(12 July 2018, Jakarta)

IGCN collaborated with Global Reporting Initiatives (GRI), an independent international organization that has pioneered sustainability reporting, conducted a joint-event for “Sneak-Peek” Session on the then upcoming tool “Practical Guide to business reporting on the SDGs” which was later launched on 17 July 2018 during High-level Political Forum (HLPF) in New York.

This “Sneak-Peek” event was conducted in conjunction with the visit of and was delivered by Eszter Vitorino of GRI, who was leading the tool development along with Bernhard Frey of the UN Global Compact and covered the following:

- Outlines a three-step process to embed the SDGs in business and reporting processes in alignment with recognized principles
- Provides insight into how corporate can cater to the data needs of the investment community
- Corporate SDG data as a catalyst for investments with positive real-life impact

4. Up Close and Personal on Sustainability Reporting with Tim Mohin, the GRI Chief Executive
(5 October 2018, Jakarta)

In conjunction with the visit of Tim Mohin, the GRI Chief Executive, IGCN & GRI Indonesia joined coordination to hold three (3) events:

- Strategic Discussion: The Roles of CEO and CFO in advancing sustainable business practices and contribute to SDGs, arranged by GRI with the support from Indonesia Stock Exchange and IGCN
- Courtesy visit to Minister of National Development Planning to discuss SDG reporting by private sector in Voluntary National Reporting (VNR)
- Limited discussion with IGCN members on GRI Standard for Sustainability Report and Reporting for SDGs. The limited discussion with IGCN members was to have knowledge sharing and discussion on how corporate’s sustainability practices create competitive advantages and meaningful contribution to the SDGs.

Sustainability Reporting is one of way to capture private sectors contribution to the SDGs and another way to explore how corporation transforms their business practices to be more sustainable and generating positive impacts to society and environment.
B. BUSINESS FOR PEACE

It was held in the occasion of the 70th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as well as the visit of the United Nations High Commissioner of Human Rights, Mr. Zeid Ra’ad Al Hussein. JIC was intended to evaluate the current stage of the promotion and protection of human rights in the region as well as to explore and share best practices and lessons learned in overcoming challenges and advancing cooperation of human rights.

ACTIVITIES
As a good neighbor of people in its operational area, Adaro has a strong commitment to contribute in decreasing social and environmental problems. After implementing the Community Led Total Sanitation (CLTS) program since 2012, Adaro successfully accelerates the impact creation to the whole regency of Tabalong by targeting the area to be Open Defecation Free (ODF) in 2019. Working together with Tabalong District Health Office, Adaro encourages the local community to reach Open Defecation Free status. Each person in each village should change their behavior into healthier lifestyle and work together to provide access to sanitation facilities in their area. Stronger advocacy resulted optimum support from strategic stakeholders, especially Government Regent of Tabalong who released a regulation that let the villages to post a budget for toilet building. It is believed that this program will reduce Water-born diseases, such as typhus and dysentery, which could spread rapidly in affected local areas.

The energy of strong collaboration between Adaro and Tabalong Government then creates a solid movement named TUNTAS!!! (Tinggalkan BABS untuk Tabalong Sehat / Leave Open Defecation for Healthy Tabalong). TUNTAS!!! Was launched in November 2018 and 102 (one hundred two) toilets were built in 11 (eleven) villages in Tabalong regency in that event.

INTEGRATED COMMUNITY EMPOWERMENT IN DATARAN KEMPAS, JAMBI

The Integrated Forestry and Farming System (IFFS) program, also known as Desa Makmur Peduli Api (DMPA), was established in collaboration between Asia Pulp & Paper (APP) and farmers to facilitate community empowerment, based on agroforestry, in the areas surrounding its suppliers’ concessions. This program is being implemented in the village of Dataran Kempas, Tanjung Jabung Barat District, Jambi, situated next to PT Wira Karya Sakti (WKS), where villagers currently cultivate horticultural crops, breed goat and Nile tilapia fish, as well as produce compost for self-consumption and to sell.

Consisting of 130 women, The Mekar Wangi Women Farmers Group cultivates red ginger with rhizomes provided by APP. These are then planted in polybags across a one-hectare field owned by the community, with a production capacity of around 8 tons.

PT WKS also empowers around 30 youth, who are members of Karang Taruna Laskar Nusa, through the Nile tilapia (nila fish) aquaculture program. Fish seedlings, nets and fish feed are provided by APP to assist in the cultivation of these fish to meet the demands of the local community. In line with this, a goat breeding program has also been implemented by the Trans Mandiri Farmers Group, which consists of 32 members.

Horticultural crops such as corn, long beans, eggplants, tomatoes and chili are currently planted on the allocated land, also used for goat breeding, but the biggest program in the Dataran Kempas village to date would be the composting of oil palm waste and cow manure. PT WKS has helped by providing IDR 150 million in assistance to develop the compost fertilizer facility, which employs 55 villagers and can produce 1,000 tons per month, with earnings reaching IDR 1 billion. The compost producing scheme is currently being replicated in two neighboring villages, aimed to improve local livelihoods.

APP has improved the region’s economic value but more importantly, empowered the villagers. In recognizing the villagers’ achievements, the Tanjung Jabung Barat District Government named Dataran Kempas as the best village during the Bulan Bakti Gotong Royong Masyarakat (Mutual Cooperation Community Service Month) in 2017. The IFFS program was conferred the Padmamitra Award in 2018 by the Ministry of Social of the Republic of Indonesia for eradicating poverty.
UTILIZATION OF WOOD CONTAINER WASTE FOR EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT AND ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

Asia Pulp & Paper (APP) believes companies must have a positive impact on the environment and surrounding communities, in order to achieve sustainable operations. At its Indah Kiat Serang mill, APP tries to make a positive impact through the use of wood container waste to make school furniture and handicraft products.

The community has benefited from this program through the provision of school furniture, jobs as well as a source of additional income, and this is aligned with programs by the provincial government to empower SMEs, develop tourism and promote local culture. More importantly, the program has helped to contribute and make a positive impact in the management of solid waste and the move towards zero waste.

The construction of school furniture has empowered carpenters in the community around the factory since 2012, who earn around IDR 3 – 4 million per month. Since then, 1,720 sets of furniture have been distributed to elementary schools around the Indah Kiat Serang mill.

In addition to this, the Cipta Handicraft Innovation Product (CHIP) group, which comes from the Kadikaran village, Ciruas sub-district, uses wood waste from the school furniture and turns it into handicrafts in the form of tissue holders, miniature pinisi vessels, Banten monuments, butterflies, airplanes, photo frames, pen holders, decorative lights, key chains, puzzles, café decorations and many others. The products are then marketed and sold online and offline to individuals, government agencies or private companies in the areas of Serang, Jakarta, Bandung, Tangerang, Bali and other regions, with an average monthly income of around IDR 40 - 100 million.

The community has benefited from this program through the provision of school furniture, jobs as well as a source of additional income, and this is aligned with programs by the provincial government to empower SMEs, develop tourism and promote local culture. More importantly, the program has helped to contribute and make a positive impact in the management of solid waste and the move towards zero waste.

SINTESA GROUP

- EDGE Certification to move towards Gender Equality in the Workplace and Inclusive Business

- Water Sanitation Hygiene (WASH) Pledge

EDGE CERTIFICATION TO MOVE TOWARDS GENDER EQUALITY IN THE WORKPLACE AND INCLUSIVE BUSINESS

Sintesa Group subsidiary, Tira Austenite Tbk has become one of the first five companies in Indonesia that has become EDGE Certified. EDGE (Economic Dividends for Gender Equality) certification is a leading global assessment methodology and business certification standards for gender equality. EDGE certification is designed to help companies not only create optimal workplaces for women and men, but also provide optimal benefits for company performance. This EDGE certification is the first time in Indonesia. To date, EDGE has provided certification to approximately 200 companies in 48 countries and 23 industries.

As the Founding Member of Indonesia Business Coalition on Women Empowerment (IBCWE), Sintesa Group is committed to ensure equal opportunities for women in the workplace in all its operation.

HUMAN RIGHTS: IMPROVING ACCESS TO EDUCATION

Sintesa Group assists and cares scavenger children at the outskirts of South Jakarta and help them to get their rights of better education and opportunity to express themselves. Besides basic education, they also get entrepreneurial and musical skills to prepare them in the future. In 2018, the focus was to provide better education facility. But, due to behavioural and communal resistance, our efforts are not yet maximum.

With location at a temporary garbage collection site, the biggest challenges these children faced is the parental stigma of “food-over-education.” Several potential success stories have emerged, but many are eclipsed by it. One of them is Agus (not real name).
WATER SANITATION HYGIENE (WASH) PLEDGE

Sintesa Group signed WASH Pledge as direct contribution to accelerate solutions to the global challenge of access to safe Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) at the Workplace. With this pledge, we are committed to ensure appropriate access to safe water, sanitation and hygiene for all employees in all premises and communities under our management from clean drinking water by working with our suppliers, treating discharged water effectively, raise awareness on water conservation, and improve access to water and sanitation across the affiliate companies and communities we work in.

From this putrid place, Agus is able to break barriers by entering University of Indonesia. Unfortunately, not all of them has the fragrant experience of him. Susanti (not real name) managed to get an opportunity to further her education in Japan, but her parents, afraid that they will lose member of the family that can provide immediate income, forced her to let it go and being an Office Girl instead. This condition is similar throughout this community.

Children education is one thing, parental education on its importance is a whole new thing. That is why this work has to be continuous, and Sintesa Group is committed to make them change through providing better education facility, extending opportunities to showcase their children potentials and abilities, while at the same time involving them as a community for their children’s future.
